Sample Covenant for Certified Lay Ministers (CLMs) and CLM Candidates

Preface

The Certified Lay Minister or Certified Lay Minister Candidate is one who provides basic ministerial leadership on a part-time basis to benefit certain local churches. The CLM is a lay person who is involved in ongoing training and supervision through the elders of our annual conference. Assigned by the district superintendent, the CLM will provide pulpit coverage, some visitation, and leadership for the local church/charge. The CLM is not authorized to celebrate the sacraments of baptism and holy communion and is not permitted to perform weddings. The CLM is not to be involved in ministry beyond the local church such as a nursing home or hospital chaplaincy and worship services etc. Other tasks of ministry are included in the covenant below established between the local church, certified lay minister (candidate), supervising elder, and district superintendent.

All of the Covenant items listed in the sample may NOT apply to all CLM assignments. Under the responsibilities of the CLM items can be modified for the particular situation. Other duties a CLM such as Bible Study, Youth Ministry, etc., may be added to the CLM's responsibilities.

The covenant may also add arrangements for the CLM's vacation time, days off, etc. based on the CLM's primary work schedule. Additional responsibilities for the church/charge should be considered in determining compensation or if church members will be participating in additional tasks of ministry. Some CLM's may serve an assignment as a volunteer. In such case, the charge is strongly encouraged to provide compensation for mileage.

Remember this is a sample and the covenant should be modified to reflect the particular assignment. However, please note that the monthly meetings of the Supervising Elder and the CLM or CLM candidate are not optional. Communication with the SPRC or designated SPRC member(s) should be frequent but may include phone, email or face to face meetings.
The Certified Lay Minister Covenant

To serve Jesus Christ in the Susquehanna Conference of The United Methodist Church, the following covenant is established between (church/charge) and (name of CLM/CLM Candidate):
